

News Brief: Mohegan Selects Workday to Support Global Growth

PLEASANTON, Calif., June 30, 2022 — Workday, Inc. (NASDAQ: WDAY), a leader in enterprise cloud applications for finance and human resources, today announced that Mohegan, world renowned entertainment and gaming brand, has selected Workday Financial Management and Workday Human Capital Management \(HCM\) to help support its global growth.

With more than 10,000 employees worldwide, Mohegan is a master developer and operator of premier entertainment resorts. The organization is experiencing accelerated growth as it expands operations in gaming and entertainment across countries including the U.S., Canada, and South Korea.

With Workday, Mohegan will:

- Leverage one system for finance and HR with a single source of truth to help manage, automate, and optimize business processes across its growing portfolio of properties, including hotels, casinos, entertainment arenas, restaurants, and more.
- Improve planning and reporting to support global expansion by using Workday to help drive enterprise-wide financial planning and forecasting as it quickly adapts and scales its business.
- Deliver engaging employee experiences by eliminating manual data entries and automating finance and HR functions so employees have one place to access and view all of their information, including benefits, expenses, payroll, and more.

“We needed a single, cloud-based system that could provide us with a complete view of our business to help ensure we are adequately budgeting, planning, reporting, recruiting, and managing our people to support our aggressive strategic objectives,” said Mark Rosa, senior vice president and chief information officer, Mohegan. “Workday offers us a global system for finance and human resources that will provide the flexibility needed to adapt to the changing nature of our business by helping us navigate compliance, financial planning, reporting, talent management, and other business risks.”
