News Brief: AdventHealth Selects Workday to Support Its Commitment to Whole-Person Care

PLEASANTON, Calif., December 5, 2023 -- Workday, Inc. (NASDAQ: WDAY), a leader in enterprise cloud applications for finance and human resources, today announced that AdventHealth has selected Workday Financial Management, Workday Human Capital Management (HCM), Workday Supply Chain Management (SCM) for Healthcare, Workday Prism Analytics, Workday Peakon Employee Voice, and Workday Extend to support its mission in delivering exceptional whole-person care.

“As a growing healthcare organization, we need an agile, cloud-based system to help improve our operational efficiency and support our strategic vision of being a consumer-focused, clinically integrated network,” said Brent Snyder, executive vice president and chief information officer, AdventHealth. “Workday will help transform our finance, HR, and supply chain processes, empower our employees with more control and flexibility, and enable us to grow and deliver whole-person care for our patients and communities.”

Headquartered in Altamonte Springs, Florida, AdventHealth has more than 90,000 employees and physicians across more than 50 hospital campuses in nine states. As AdventHealth continues to grow and roll out new innovations to support its caregivers, it needs a unified, cloud-based system to streamline transactions and become a more efficient healthcare organization.

With Workday, AdventHealth plans to:

- Automate its financial and supply chain processes with Workday Financial Management and Workday SCM, gaining comprehensive, real-time visibility into costs, transactions, and revenue drivers to enable AdventHealth to scale the business and adapt to changing industry needs.
- Leverage Workday HCM to create better employee experiences by empowering its workforce with self-service capabilities to access and manage their finance and HR tasks, including payroll, expenses, career development, and more.
