

News Brief: Lifespan Corporation Selects Workday to Support its Commitment to Delivering Health with Care

PLEASANTON, Calif., February 27, 2024 -- Workday, Inc. (NASDAQ: WDAY), a leading provider of solutions to help organizations manage their people and money, today announced that Rhode Island's largest health system, Lifespan Corp., selected Workday Financial Management, Workday Human Capital Management \(HCM\), Workday Supply Chain Management \(SCM\) for Healthcare, and Workday Adaptive Planning to accelerate its digital transformation efforts.

"Workday will help transform our business processes – from automating manual tasks to providing engaging experiences for employees and clinicians – which will greatly support our mission of delivering health with care," said Peter Markell, executive vice president and chief financial officer, Lifespan. "With an integrated view into financial, workforce, and electronic medical record data, we will be able to make faster, more informed business decisions and adapt quickly to changing industry demands."

Lifespan is a not-for-profit health system based in Providence, RI with more than 16,000 employees across five hospitals, multiple ambulatory care sites and behavioral health centers, and two physician practice groups. As Lifespan continues to integrate its systems to ensure continuity of care for its patients, it needs to streamline processes and enable the organization to operate at scale.

With Workday, Lifespan plans to:

- Gain a real-time, accurate view of its financial data with Workday Financial Management to identify revenue drivers, improve decision making, and drive organizational flexibility to support growth.
- Leverage Workday SCM to automate supply chain processes and gain visibility into inventory, procurement, sourcing and supplier management, and more so Lifespan can optimize spend control and mitigate risk.
- Deliver engaging employee experiences and improve talent retention with Workday HCM and Workday AI by automating manual tasks such as hiring and onboarding, payroll, scheduling, and more.
