Workday Showcases Technology Leadership at Grace Hopper Celebration 2024 with 50 Delegates and Five Speakers

Company Demonstrates Ongoing Commitment to Empowering Women and Nonbinary Technologists Alongside AnitaB.org

PLEASANTON, Calif., Oct. 3, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Workday, Inc. (NASDAQ: WDAY), a leading provider of solutions to help organizations manage their people and money, today announced its sponsorship of Grace Hopper Celebration 2024 (GHC). Fifty delegates and five speakers from Workday will participate in innovation sessions at this year's event. As part of its sponsorship, the company will also host the AI/ML and Cloud Computing Reception on October 9 at 5:30pm ET at the Marriott Downtown Philadelphia.

Taking place October 8-11, both virtually and in person in Philadelphia, GHC 24 serves as the world's largest gathering of women and nonbinary technologists. The Celebration provides a diverse and vibrant platform for this community to connect, collaborate, and step into their collective power.

"Our sponsorship of GHC 24 reflects Workday's deep commitment to fostering a more inclusive tech industry," said Kathy Pham, Vice President, AI, Workday. "We stand alongside Grace Hopper Celebration and AnitaB.org in championing diversity, and we're proud to help empower the voices of women and nonbinary technologists – this week, and beyond."

About AnitaB.org
At AnitaB.org, a global nonprofit organization, we envision a future where the people who imagine and build technology mirror the societies for whom they build it. We connect, inspire, and guide women and nonbinary individuals in technical fields, as well as organizations that view technology innovation as a strategic imperative.

Our social enterprise supports women in technical fields, the organizations that employ them, and the academic institutions that train future generations. A full roster of programs helps women grow, learn, and develop their highest potential.
